1. APPLICABILITY

- 1.1 This code of conduct applies to all the employees of the company. We also expect our other stakeholders to be aware of the code of conduct and act in a manner consistent with this code.
- 1.2 The Code of Conduct is our fundamental policy document, stating the requirements that every single person working for and with the Company must comply with, regardless of location.
- 1.3. GHCL expects that each one;
 - Behave ethically, comply with the applicable principles and rules and fulfill legal and regulatory obligations.
 - Seek guidance, in case a working practice is not ethical or unsafe;
 - Report non-compliance of the conditions of the code of conduct immediately.
 - Complete all mandatory training assigned, within the prescribed time limit and strictly practice all guidelines in these trainings.

2. OBJECTIVE OF THE CODE:

- 2.1. The objective of the Code is to;
 - (a) maintain standards of business conduct which is honest, fair, and ethical;
 - (b) ensure compliance of applicable laws, rules & regulations;
 - (c) adopt the standards and values which can enhance the value of the organization;
 - (d) deter wrongdoing in all business-related activities;
- 2.2 The matters covered under this Code are of utmost importance to the Company, and its stakeholders. Further, the Code is essential for the conduct of our business in accordance with our stated values.
- 2.3 All employees, supply chain partners, and individuals dealing with the company in any capacity are expected to read and understand this Code, uphold these standards in day-to-day activities and comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, and procedures adopted by the Company that governs the conduct of its business operations.

- 2.4 As the principles described in this Code are general in nature, employees should also review the Company's other applicable policies and procedures for more specific instruction.

3. HONEST AND ETHICAL CONDUCT

- 3.1 The Code expects all employees to act in accordance with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty, and ethical conduct, while working on the Company's premises, at offsite locations where the Company's business is being conducted, at sponsored business and social events or at any other place where employees are representing the Company.

Honest conduct under the Code means conduct that is free from fraud or deception. Ethical conduct under the Code means conduct that is in accordance with the accepted professional standards. Ethical conduct includes the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships.

Wherever an employee is not sure about the appropriateness of an event/situation/action the employee should seek assistance in interpreting the requirements of the Code by contacting their local HR/ CHRO/ Secretarial Department.

- 3.2 Anti-bribery and anti-corruption: GHCL follows a Zero Tolerance Policy regarding bribery and corruption or facilitation of payment in any business dealings. GHCL refrains from being affiliated with any specific political party.

(a) GHCL is committed to ensure compliance with applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws at all times. Hence, all the stakeholders are duty-bound to ensure compliance with anti-bribery and anti-corruption guidelines at all times.

(b) It is expected from our stakeholders that no one should personally engage in or ignore any instance of someone paying or receiving any bribe, kickback, or facilitation payment on behalf of GHCL.

- (c) Any instance of potential bribery or corruption shall be immediately reported to the Compliance Officer/CHRO/Local HR.

3.3 Restrictions on engagement in political activities/industry forums:

- (a) Employees shall cooperate with the Government, Chambers of Commerce, and Trade Associations in matters concerning the industry in order to promote, protect and enhance GHCL's business interests.
- (b) Avoid giving the impression of representing or being the spokesperson of GHCL while associating with any political party or political activities in personal capacity.
- (c) Only authorised personnel should engage in commenting on political process or in policy debate, including lobbying.
- (d) No political contributions should be made on behalf of the Company, without prior approval of the Board of Directors.

4. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

- 4.1 A conflict of interest exists where the interests or benefits of one person or entity conflict with the interest or benefits of the Company. An employee's duty to the Company demands that he or she avoids and discloses actual and apparent conflicts of interest. All business decisions must be made free from any conflict of interest.

- 4.2. Employment / outside employment: In consideration of employment with the Company, employees are expected to devote their full attention to the business interests of the Company. Employees are prohibited from engaging in any activity that interferes with their performance or responsibilities to the Company, or is otherwise in conflict with or prejudicial to the Company. Our policies prohibit employees from accepting simultaneous employment with any other organization or engage in any business without prior approval of the company. However, employees are allowed to deliver lectures, associate themselves with the academic institutions, professional and industrial bodies subject to following restrictions:

- a. Employees must adhere to the directions issued by GHCL on refraining from sharing objectionable or confidential content, obtaining requisite approvals, etc.
- b. Employees are permitted to deliver lectures at or write articles for or engage with any educational institutions or publications or professional forums or for industries, provided it does not create a conflict of interest with or any reputational damage for the company.
- c. Any related travel or accommodation cost may be accepted provided this should not amount to an undue benefit to the employees.

4.3. Outside Directorships: All employees must first approach the compliance officer before accepting outside directorship along with details of terms of engagement and the line of business of that company. The compliance officer after consulting with the managing director/ executive directors shall give clearance on same to the concerned employees.

4.4. Business Interests: If an employee is considering investing in any customer, supplier, developer, or competitor of the Company, he or she must first take care to ensure that these investments do not compromise on their responsibilities to the Company. Our Policy requires that employees first obtain prior approval from the Managing Director by approaching the Compliance Officer before making such an investment.

Many factors should be considered in determining whether a conflict exists, including

- i. the size and nature of investment;
- ii. the employees' ability to influence the Company's decisions;
- iii. his or her access to confidential information of the Company or the other Company and
- iv. the nature of the relationship between the Company and the other Company.

- 4.5. Related Parties: As a general rule, employees should avoid conducting Company business with a relative, or with a business in which a relative is associated in any significant role. For the purpose of this code “Relatives” include spouse, father, mother, brother, sister, son, son’s wife, daughter, and daughter’s husband.

The Company discourages the employment of relatives of employees in positions or assignments within the same Department. Further, the Company prohibits the employment of such individuals in positions that have a financial dependence of influence (e.g. an auditing or control relationship, or supervisory /subordinate relationship.)

- 4.6 Payments or gifts from/to others: The purpose of business entertainment and gifts is to promote good relationships and not to gain unfair advantages. Under no circumstances any gift or other favors be offered, given, provided, or accepted that is perceived as intended, directly or indirectly, to influence any business decision, any act or failure to act, any commitment of fraud, or any opportunity for the commitment of any fraud. Specifically, such gifts or favors if given or accepted must be of nominal value not more than Rs. 10000/-, not in cash, consistent with customary business practice, not construed as a bribe or payoff, and not in violation of any laws or regulations.
- 4.7. Corporate Opportunities: Employees may not exploit for their own personal gain, opportunities that are discovered through the use of corporate property, information or position unless the opportunity is disclosed fully in writing to the managing director and the managing director declines to pursue the such opportunity in the interest of the company.
- 4.8. Other situations: There may be various circumstances and situations in which conflict of interest may arise and it is impractical to attempt to list all possible situations. Hence, in this circumstances it is advised to consult the Corporate Secretarial for any clarification.

5. COMMITMENT TO OUR STAKEHOLDERS AND THE ENVIRONMENT

- 5.1. Insider trading and corporate confidentiality: Prevent sharing of unpublished information of the Company.
